can't wait to see Hailey when they do the Commentaries! I thought she was a 'snippy young punk' when she was first on the show, disrespecting her Mom & all. But I think she got insite while on there.

I'm so hoping she is not getting 'wasted' as she was prior to her stay, but she herself said she was worried about that. At least she did realize it was something she didn't want~~~hoping for the BEST for her. If she gets her Jeans going, Cool, but her Artwork is Way Cool, and she sure does have the talent.

My book on Hailey... :laugh:
