You can ck over to the original SOsite under Show Guide. It tells what WILL happen on each show & who will do the Commentary. Then if it has already aired, it will give a detailed synopsis of what DID happen.

Follow me? Peace Out!
See y'all later tonight... B)

Did you say you could not watch the show due to Olympics & to keep you informed of what's happening? That's why I suggested you go there, that's all.

You know if the Former Houseguests have posted "Where Are They Now" that it's under that. That's all I know pertaining to that, OK?
