Ok banditas

It has been a blast to get to know all of you. I will not be on as much as I would like to be or as much as my addiction to this site will allow. I am starting my second semester back at school. If time allows I will try and check in as often as possible. I wanted to let you all know how greta you have been.

I need to keep my grade point average up right now it is a 3.4. I need to keep it to get scholarships. So please send me positive thoughts and prayers.

That's COOL momof2 but I MISS YOU ALREADY! :(It sounds depressing reading that post! :unsure: :(I am so PROUD of YOU though. Kids, Husband, Home, School, HEAT, Banditas.... :unsure: :(I wish you the best always, you are doing the right thing for you & your children. I know you won't be able to stay away long but we'll be sure to 'shoo' you away! :ohmy: :laugh:

That is so great..... Not that you will be off the board!, but that you are starting a new chapter/semester to a better life :) :) I can only imagine the hard work that is involved in keeping all that you do each day moving smoothly :ohmy:

I for one know there is no way I could have handled my children, husband, maintain the home, and still have energy to go to school :ohmy: :blink: :unsure:

NOPE never would have happened..

I know we have not known each other long but I really admire you for your determination in perusing your passions and going for it all!

I will keep you in my prayers and ask for special help to be sent to you, by new friendships like here to help cheer you on.

To special teachers, who understand the extent of your drive to better yourself and your family.

Lots of love and WAY TO GO MOMMA :laugh: :laugh: :laugh:

Hugs
