1. What do you do for a living?

I am a customer service manager at Wal-Mart. I am also President of a PTA here in town. I gave up Council President and a seat on the State PTA Board of directors for it. That is one of my unpaid jobs. I am also one of the Administrators on this site. Plus I am Mom, wife, gardener, housecleaner, etc.

2. favorite Movie and it is ok you can have several Terminator, Dirty Dancing, Titanic. There are more but I can't think of them at the moment.

3. favorite housemate. Lori. That woman touched my heart and soul. I cried so hard for her so many times.

What do I do for a living?

Well I'm a jack of all trades and a master at none of them. LOL!!!

I make beaded necklaces and bracelets and earrings. I am in the process of getting on e-bay to sell baby clothes but can't figure that darn board out regarding pictures. I will get it sooner or later I hope.

What is your favorite movie

By far, A walk in the clouds and now diary of a mad black woman.

Favorite HG?

Sommer, her dad, and mom,

1. What do you do for a living?

I have my own business where I provide electronic and print media. In other words, I'll create your website, newsletter, business cards, signs, brochures, etc. And I do some graphic design for t-shirts, logos, etc.

2. favorite Movie and it is ok you can have several

St. Elmo's Fire...because it was the springboard for so many talented actors and I related to the characters' struggles in maturing.

3. favorite housemate.

I think Lori was my favourite because I understood her silence, her solitude, her depth of loss.

hi i'm judy, new to the site and So. (already an addict!!) I'm married with 3 children. i'm a MA too. I hope to return to school in the fall to get my RN license. I look forward to getting to know all. My favorite movie?? too many to name, dances with wolves, anything by tyler Perry, I love plays and books basically anything with a good story.

Re: New Intro's

Posted by jbordeaux - 2005/08/17 09:32

hi zet, for those in the sistahood Zet is my sister!!! we both love starting over and have begun to work on our issues. Oh, i forgot in my last post to answer my favorite housemate... I love them all, but i would have to say Lori right now, she's brutally honest and i like that in people. If you would ask Zet, I think she would say that Im like that(he, he).

Re: New Intro's

Posted by Payenanny - 2005/08/17 11:57

WOW...so many names I've never said hello and welcome to...excuse my manners ladies :(

Welcome to the sisters, jbordeaux and lezettaclayton..and to girlfriend and kelar419...Enjoy the site..Its filled with many very nice people :)

I've never answered these questions so I guess I should do that now huh?

I am "labeled" as a nanny for tax purposes...I home teach and "lifecoach" a wonderful 7 year old autistic boy and his sisters, I met him when I taught special ed. His parents then hired me to work exclusively for them.

Favorite movies is a hard one because I have so many ...A few that come to mind are Hedwig and The Angry Inch..Almost Famous, Jesus' Son, Stage Beauty (and anything else with Billy Crudup in it)...What The Bleep do we Know..I heart Huckabees..and the bbb says I gotta say Whale Rider.

I see the uniqueness in every houseguest and usually find something I like that about each of them..Lori (of course) is exceptionally unique and therefore one of my most favorites...And Denise for exactly the same reason girlfriend does!

a big HEY to those who are new and those who are not (notice I didn't call anyone "old" ;)).

Occupation - Just trying to be a "Becky".

I have been a stay at home mom of four for the last 25 years. I started back to school a few years ago for an Art Education degree but am taking a break for health and sanity reasons. :unsure: :laugh:

Fav. Movie - A lot! But Donnie Darko, Bed of Roses, Cold Mountain, and Philadelphia Story (B&W) are my top favorites.

Fav. SO housemate- Andy for being such a beautiful kind spirit and already possessing all that she needed to shine.

Denise for being such a broken hearted kook. I love her. Most identified with her past and sense of humor!

PS - aresee = RC = rebecca c. = becky

Hello Local Homies

Profile: Harmony

Occupation: student majoring in Occupational Therapy and minoring in psychology and philosophy/religion

Graduation date: cross your fingers May 2006 :) There will be a "bit" of a party...and i hear i have some takers on some visitors

Fav. Movie: (movie junkie)Raising Helen, Cold Mountain, Divine secrets of the Ya Ya Sisterhood, Follow that Bird (no laughing it is a GOOD movie), Love Actually, Elf, Fried Green Tomatoes, How to Deal, how to Lose a guy in 10 days, and Pirates of the Caribbean...I could keep going...

Fav. SO housemate: Jennifer from Season 2 (i did not watch season 1...and i don't like trying to watch the reruns)...and Denise...although i did like Towanda...from season 1 what i did see i would concur that Andy and Lori were pretty cool.

Welcome to SOT Amyfaith!
We are as Glad to have you here as You are to be here!

Yes, Season 3 is upon us, won't be long now.

You are on Disability now so that does give you time to watch the show....it gets you hooked QUICK!

My name is Halfdollar and I've been on this site for awhile now, met some good friends thru it, too. I am from Michigan in the thumb where the Blue Water Wonderland dwells!

If you'd like to tell more about yourself, feel free to do so and make your way over to the chatroom whenever possible to meet others. There is also an Arcade you can play games on -- to get there, click on Arcade in the left column. Good Luck finding your way around the site!

Take care,

HD

I am a 24 year old engaged girl who is moving to NYC in less than two weeks now(mixed emotions about that). I am currently in customer service but hope to find something working with kids once we move. I'm applying to graduate schools so I can earn my Masters in Social Work(YAY!) :laugh:

We are currently living in Syracuse, NY with our 3 cats.

My favorite movie of all time is "Clerks", if you've ever worked in customer service and don't mind a little crude humor you would love it!

I am also super happy to have Starting Over to watch again and even more happy to have found a board similar to the one on the old website! My favorite houseguest is probably Josie...her and I had many of the same issues with men.

Can't wait to chat with everybody!!

Hello!

I'm new to the Starting Over Boards. I fell in love with the show when I got my DVR...and now I'm hopelessly hooked and so excited that the new season has begun.

About me...

I'm a business teacher at our local high school. I am a single Mom of an amazing 11-year old girl.

My favorite movies include: While You Were Sleeping, The American President, Phantom of the Opera, Where the Heart Is, and Shawshank Redemption.

I'm not sure who my all time favorite housemate has been. I can honestly say that I have been touched on some level by all of the ones I have watched from the beginning and ending of Season 2.

Thanks for reading! Blessings...Susan

Hi! I'm Trish. I work full time out of my home for myself and my husband for our Tile and Marble installation business. It is REALLY busy -- all the time!!

Favorite movies -- so many!! I think I'll say 28 days, The Ya-Ya Sisterhood and Bring it On.

My favorite houseguest -- this is going to sound weird, but I have learned the most from the ones I liked the least. They have taught me things that I needed to learn about what I most disliked about myself. Who I liked just for themselves -- Andy, Candy, Susan, Allison, and all the women who ended the last season.

A big HELLO to all the women I knew from the OLD SO board!! How you livin'?
DoggieMom - are you planning on spoiling us??? I can't wait!!!!

1. What do you do for a living? I'm a SAHM to 3 and co-owner with my hubby of a quick lube/auto repair shop.
2. favorite Movie and it is ok you can have several: When Harry Met Sally, Chicago, Grease, Napoleon Dynamite :lol:
3. favorite housemate. past was Allison (I admire her strength and outlook after all she has been through), and Rachael (but only because I could relate to her losing her mother at a young age to disease and not knowing she was sick until near the end) This season so far, maybe Jennifer and Lou (I can relate best to them, although I see a bit of dh and I in each couple)

Greetings from the Pacific Northwest.

Congrats on the new mb here - after surfing around on some of the others associated with SO this one looks like the place to be (for me).

I'm an artist and boater and live aboard my (modest) boat whenever possible. I have challenges galore with the lifestyle I live and am always looking for inspiration to drive me onward. SOH, when I'm 'home' has provided me with both entertainment and now and again feeds my creative energy.

I'm not interested in the couples episodes but will certainly be tuning in when the ladies (only) arrive. Good to see the show is trying out a new angle but the selfish side of me wants it to remain strictly for women interested in improving their lives.

Looking forward to participating here when I can although, fair warning, I'm not a fan of the last years coaching 'techniques' but what's bringing me back is the concept of SOH which I think is absolutely fantastic.

My favorite all-time houseguest is Hannah who I feel used the SOH for what it was meant for. Like Allison, too!
My least favorite-----oh gee. Better not go there yet. lol j/k

Again, congrats on the new mb, and thanks to the 'owner/s'for taking on such a huge task. :)

New member here, looking for new message board after being disappointed with SO official site.

Answers to questions:

1. Stay-at-home wife & grandma (very young one, of course). Children grown & married.
 2. Favorite movies are old ones on Turner Classics. Don't have a particular one. Last seen in the theater was Charlie and the Chocolate Factory (good pic) with my grandson.
 3. Favorite all-time houseguest was Lori from Season 1.

First, many thanks to Tara and the others who put together this terrific site.

I am a tutor who works individually with kids who have various kinds of school problems and I do educational testing with a psychologist--so I am home at noon when SO is on in our area. That's how I got hooked.

I haven't sat through enough movies in the last ten plus yrs to have a favorite. Kids, work, homeschooling, running my business and falling asleep. No favorites, really. I do read books though...

Denise I believe is my all time favorite houseguest. I laughed aloud at her antics more than once. Just voted for her today and enjoyed hearing her voice on the radio. I cried this week listening to Jessica (do I have name right) tell about her mother's death on Sept 11.

Look forward to reading posts. Can live without spoilers if necessary! The spoiler posts never seemed to tell me all I wanted to know...

Good night all.

Hi,

I'm new to message boards and happy to say this is my very first post....anywhere! I've watched S.O. since season 2 and caught some of season 1 on reruns. Spent a couple days trying to read a lot of the posts here...it seems like such a neat place! Thanks for a great site! Well, let's see if I remember the questions:

1. What do I do?

I am a volunteer EMT/Firefighter & CPR Instructor in semi-rural Colorado. (by the way, it's blizzarding tonite!!) I also am very happily married for over 16 years and homeschool my 12 yo son and 14 yo daughter.

2. Favorite movie?

Oh boy, well, I love old movies...Bringing Up Baby with Cary Grant is hilarious!

3. Favorite houseguest?

I think Allison. Partly because I have weight and health issues and partly because she's just so awesome and inspiring! I have learned a lot from so many of them!

I hope I didn't post too long...I'm new at this. But I'm really looking forward to this season and this site. I won't post often or much....if that's okay. I mostly learn from others. Thanks again!:cheer:

My favorite movies are Empire Strikes Back and Revenge of the Sith. (Yes...I am a total Star Wars nerd). If I need to laugh then my faves are Dude, Wheres my Car or Zoolander.

My favorite housemates are Renee and Hayley (sp?) I can't remember how to spell her name.:blink:

Hi all .... looks like a great place to be! Looking forward to joining your community.

1. What do you do for a living?

Right now I'm unemployed, but actively searching! Most of my employment past lies in Office Management, but I also spent 10 years working for a (boo hiss) cigarette manufacturer as a production supervisor and then quality/control analyst. I'm also the single mother of an 8 1/2 year old son who is the light of my life. I got hooked on SO at the beginning of Season Two, but have seen some of Season One's shows.

2. favorite Movie and it is ok you can have several

There are several "old" movies that I like and can watch over and over again, but my all time favorite is Apollo 13 (and I couldn't begin to tell you why!).

3. favorite housemate.

Allison is my favorite, but Sommer is a close second. I know a lot of people didn't like her, but somehow she 'spoke' to me!

TTYL,

Marie

As for the questions:

1. I work for Wal Mart in the frozen foods dept. In my spare time I do welding sculpture and gardening. I guess I also "work" to keep my 4 cats in the lifestyle to which they have become accustomed.
  2. My fav movies are The Shawshank Redemption, Paradise Road and The Notebook
  3. Its a toss up between Andy and Lori of Season 1--and for very different reasons. I thought Andy really stretched and grew into a "new" woman in total control of her life. And Lori maintained her personal boundaries throughout the SO experience as she learned to "let go" of John.

Good afternoon....I have been to this board many times (what a wonderful board it is) and thought that I should introduce myself.

I am a business owner who works out of her home (medical transcription). My favorite movies are anything musical i.e. Grease, Sound of Music, Chicago, etc. Hobbies are sports, music (obviously), reading and learning new things from different points of view. My favorite HGs were Lori, Rachel, and I would have to say Jessica and Christina so far this season.

I live in Michigan, have 2 sons, and 2 dogs.

Thank you so much, I believe, Tara for an intelligent, thoughtful, and friendly board. I really appreciate it, and look forward to chatting with you all soon.

Hi! Guys!

I am from a small town near Waco, Texas. I LOVE THIS SHOW! I recently started working night shift (I have worked days for many years). I work for an organization who helps people with mental health and mental retardation. So, I am a newby to Starting Over. I have two daughters and a hubby. I am also a student at Tarleton State University getting my Bachelor's in Business Administration (then my Master's). I have gotten so much out of this show through watching the life coaches and learning from them. I'm even learning from the houseguests! I don't really have a lot of time to watch movies, so I don't have a fav. I think my favorite housemate would be TJ or Jill. It's a toss up. They are both so interesting and I feel they are learning so much together. I just found your site the other day! Have a great day!!

Hi there everyone!! Feel free to call me Sassy.. that's what most of my friends and family call me.. and have for years.

I live in Central TX, not all that far from Boop.. I'm up near Fort Hood.

I've been watching SO since Season 1 and I just love the show! It's helped me in so many ways... I can't even begin to know them all! The most amazing one was that it gave me the courage to reestablish contact with my family members.. most of whom I hadn't even spoken to in over 7 yrs. I thank God that I watched the show enough to grow to be able to do this.. especially since after reconnecting, I lost my Dad just a few short months later. I had 5 months with him and am glad I got to tell him I loved him.

Let's see, I'm a 51, 52 tomorrow!, yr old disabled wife and mother of 1. My son is 34 and is learning disabled. He's my special light and I'm blessed to have been given such a wonderful son. We just got him moved into his own place and help him with his independant living challenges. I help with the grocery list, and household needs, pay his bills out of his SS and help him save a bit when possible. He lives 2 1/2 mi. from me and is doing well. Thank God.

I'm a newly wed - we've only been married 6 yrs. He's a wonderful man that I actually met online 10 yrs ago.. and they said it wouldn't last LOL We are very happy and have just recently bought our first home together.

I guess I most relate to Allison.. I come from an alcoholic home so I understand the chaos she comes from.. I am also a breast cancer survivor... she's an amazing woman and I see her fight and struggle to overcome all that life has handed her. Though, on one level or another I relate to all the HG past and present. They've all helped me grow and learn and heal those things in my own life that have hindered me.

My favorite movie.. hmm... really there are many.. but all time favorite has to be "Airplane" Simply the funniest spoof movie ever made! I still watch it LOL I just recently found it on DVD... what a great find! LOL

Well that's about it.. I can't wait to begin to know everyone and hope that we can all become great online friends.. one can never have too many of those yanno! :lol: :lol: :lol:

Hi girls! *waves*

Oh Im so happy and delighted to have finally found a nice site!

1) Im a DomesticGoddess and Im married to HottyHubby.

2) I liked the movie: SEXYBEAST starring the brit actor, BLOW starring johnnydepp, CHOCOLAT starring johnnydepp and juliettebinoch, and THEGRASSARENA a british movie based on the true story of a alcoholic street person who in jail learns to play imaginary chess and upon release wins the british national championships.

3) Favourite houseguest this season is Jill bc she seems very kind to the other HGs and understanding.

I would like to make some SO friends bc Im impossibly addicted. My sleep schedule is around the 2 daily airings of the show. Yes I watch it twice. Im a fun person with a terrific sense of humour, but like to discuss things logically and rationally (typical Gemini). Please email me bc I want to make some nice friends. And I want to chat too. And I havent received any invitations or emails yet and so please hurry up girls!!!

food, volunteer at the school, teach sunday school, lead a small group bible study, coach softball, volunteer for the kids activities...let's see....whew...I must be tired!!!! Heehee!

My favorite movies....anything with Jon Bon Jovi, "For love of the game", "Serendipity", "Titanic"

My favorite woman in the house??? Still debating on that one!

I am new here. I have been watching SO since it's inception. I think it's a great show. My favorite hg would have to be Jill. She is so outspoken and she speaks the truth. I liked it the other day when she said that she was speechless. There are so many of the women that I really like, but there are others that are just so annoying. Ha!

Well, I work for an educational institution. No, I do not teach classes, but that is a goal that I have set for myself in the near future. As far as movies go, I don't really have a favorite. If I had to choose one, it would be Titanic!

I look forward to coming back and reading the posts here on this site.

Have a great day everyone!

Hello Everyone, I'm new to this site but not new to SO. I continue to ride the rollercoaster of ups and downs along with the ladies on the show, going through with them their trials and tribulations and look forward to sharing with you all the victories and frustrations we tend to go through as we watch them progress in their journey.

I'm currently a stay at home mom with a teenager. I recently got engaged and am looking forward to my own starting over time in my 40's hehe. We currently have two horses and in progress of getting another, 2 dogs, a himalayan persian and a bird.. yes, we love animals lol

I'd have to say my favorite HG was TJ. I could see that she had a good heart and sincerely wanted to learn how to connect with others, so although she drove them crazy at first, they eventually saw her light shine through and I was so excited to see the rest of the ladies open their arms to her. Her passion and determination finally won out and at grad she felt so much more at peace.

Current favorite would have to be Jill because even though she has her faults, she is real. I like that she stays true to herself no matter what, and is straight forward honest.

I'll wrap this up, sorry I rambled lol ... I look forward to getting into discussions here and meeting you all. :)

I couldn't believe my luck when I found this site. I first starting watching SO this season and have become obsessed with the show. Then I found SOT and other followers who know the hgs and discuss their issues. I love it, because sometimes I'll read someone's posting and it is a perspective I hadn't considered, or they'll see something I didn't see. I told my friend to watch SO, because we both are facing the empty nest syndrome this next fall. I told her to record it because she works, she hasn't done that though. So, it is nice having SOT.

I'm not sure I really have a fav movie, I don't like to see movies twice but I really liked "Ya Ya Sisterhood" "Waiting to Exhale" "How to Lose a Guy in 10 Days"

Happy to be part of SOT!!!!!!

movie - Defending Your Life

houseguest - It was TJ, now it would be either Jill or Christie.

Hello, everyone. B) I am a homemaker from KY and I've been watching SO regularly this season. I have 2 beautiful children 19m (boy) and 10 (girl). I love to watch SO because I look for helpful hints from the LC's to help me live a fulfilled life.

My favorite movie is The Wizard of Oz because sometimes I wish I was in a magical land far, far, far away, with my children, of course.

My favorite HG is Jessica because although I didn't lose anyone personally in 9/11, I did lose my brother at the tender age of 18 in a car accident. It's been 10 years and I am still healing from this.

Looking forward to reading lots of interesting posts in the future.

Be a great day.

My favorite movies are: The Breakfast Club, Friday, Gone with the Wind and more I can't think of right now.

My favorite houseguest is Jennifer from Season 2, and Jill from SO3. I can relate to those 2 best, but find a little of myself in almost all of the women.

I'm really looking forward to making some new friends!

Greetings and Salutations!

I've been lurking around here for a while and finally decided I needed to join in, if only to save my sanity from having to scream at Lisa1 everyday!

I am a research assistant for a women's studies program at a university in Jersey. I currently reside in NYC in hopes to attend grad school there as soon as I have sufficient funds!

Favorite movie? Rocky Horror Picture Show or anything with Tim Curry in it! Favorite 80's movies: Girls Just Wanna Have Fun, Goonies, Heathers, Breakfast Club.

Favorite HG: All time favorite would have to be Karen from S2. Anyone who wonders around drunk in their underwear on national television is fabulous in my book! This season it was TJ and now that she is gone I am all about Jill Tracey.

That was long, and I 'm looking forward to being a part of this community!

Peace

I'm so excited to finally find people who want to talk about SO in grown-up and intellegent conversation! I love the show and have been watching since the end of season 1.

I laughed when I saw the commercials because they make it look like another really bad reality show...when it's really not a reality show. I had no interest in watching it. Then one day it came on in the background when I was cleaning the house...and Rhonda impressed me so much I was hooked.

I love the pull no punches approach. I'm TERRIFIED that the OBVIOUSLY very young producers/editors aren't getting where the show should be going. So help me, this season reminds me a lot of how the did REAL WORLD. I sure hope they get back on track soon.

I'm a 22 year old brand new mommy of a beautiful 3 month old baby boy. I'm also about a year away from having my teaching certificate. I hope to teach 3rd or 4th grade when I finally find a teaching job.

Hmmm..my favorite movies are probably the Harry Potter series. I also like Save the Last Dance and pretty much anything with Heath Ledger.

My favorite HG is Jennifer from season 2, but for some reason Jodi has really caught my attention lately too.

I look forward to posting with everyone.:)

I am an unemployed claims adjuster (unemployed by choice, new years resolution was to quit job, and I did it, currently looking for another one)

2. favorite Movie and it is ok you can have several Kill Bill, Wizard of Oz, The Wiz, High Fidelity, I have a bunch of movies I love.

3. favorite housemate.

Jill, she seems to have so many obstacles, but is taking it all in stride for the most part :)

Hi everyone! I am new to this particular board. I have watched SO from Day one, but kind of watched sporadically from the second season till now. I am hooked again, like I was in season one! YIKES! :silly:

B) I am currently a homemaker, aGAIN, last season I was a student until we moved recently (from Southern California). Now I have to wait a year to start school again, or else pay out-of-state fees! We bought a home in beautiful Broomfield, Colorado, and are currently renovating the kitchen. I have four sons that range in age from 27 to 15. Currently, two sons live back in California and two live with us here in CO. My husband works for the FAA.

Hmm. Favorite movies, that's tough...it depends on my mood. I love "Gone With the Wind," "To Kill a Mockingbird" "Fried Green Tomatoes," most of Adam Sandler's movies (blame my sons!), as well as "Tootsie," and "A Hard Day's Night."

Gosh, I can think of a million others. I love movies.

I like Jill, Lisa A and Christie.

Re:HAVE A QUESTION REGARDING LISA

Posted by Eileen - 2006/02/18 14:49

Hi Rosemary, and welcome.

Lisa continued to email Mr. Internet and did not talk to Rhonda about her conflicted feelings. Rhonda walked out on Lisa and later said there would be a board of review. Lisa was reviewed, told she would not graduate tomorrow, and that she would have to return to Florida and complete 3 more parts of her backbone. There's conflicting information about what that is, but it seems she has to find a job, take tennis lessons, and clean her apartment. Yeah, really. At the end of 30 days, she will graduate if she meets this criteria. So far she has been gone several days and no one in the house can reach her. So who knows where she is or what will happen? It's up in the air. Check out the Lisa thread on the board and there is more conversation about the issue.

I love watching ppl and so reality tv is one of my favorite things to watch, but not just any reality show. The ones where the ppl are presented as real, and hopefully the show is not too scripted. (most are)

When I found SOH I was thrilled to see a program that touch my inner being with more than just 'entertainment' for it actually helped me with my life.

Being a middle aged woman, married for nearly 40 years, having raised 6 children, you gotta know, I can relate to alot of what these women are feeling.

Glad to meet you and I'm looking forward to being a part of this community.

actually just wanted to comment on the show and what it has made me realize...

I have only seen the show twice and it has made me realize that I have been a real hard ass on my kids.

I need to accept them as they are and not expect major changes that i believe they need to make.

none of the changes are bad, just be clean, get educated, and care about your health....

thier mother never forces any issue with them so they rebel against me, on anything that I feel is the right way to be a good man (all three boys) so, I give up, basically due to them coming of age, and just hope they "GET IT" down the road.

I now see that all the hard times I have givin them in the past contributed to their feelings towards me and unfortunately shaped their character with no confidence in themselves.

man, I really screwed up on that one...I am so sorry for that. But as a guy I saw things black and white no gray areas just do it get it done and no lee way.

so just wanted to say thanks for having the show on TV , its good for these people to have an outlet for them and help show what as affected their lives...and others

lease let them know that their problems have made me aware of my shortcomings to, and they have helped by looking at themselves and getting help...thats nice...Matt

Hi, everyone!

I have to say I have never been on such an organized and thoughtful interactive site before. I found myself jumping into everything like a moron before I read through basic information! I am happy to make a proper introduction before I do anything else!

I am Cheryl. I live in Brooklyn, NY.

I am a professional dancer making the transition from performing to teaching students ages 6-18.

My favorite movies include Amelie, Whale rider, Moulin Rouge, Sense and Sensibility and The Big Lebowski.

I've watched the show religiously since day 1. I missed some episodes here and there due to travel but stay caught up.

In all that time I have loved watching: Josie deliver Chloe, Rachel address Iyanla as "Mother" who didn't let her get burned, Andy become an actual warm and loving human being, Lori send a balloon of love and loss to the heavens, Cassie forgive herself, and Jill utter some truly profound and moving observations.

Favorite housemate?

As if!

Hello! I've been watching SO since season 1 day 1 and I just love it. I've learned so much about not only myself but others through the LCs & HGs. Like so many other women, I was not given the tools I needed growing up to make the most of myself and this has reflected in many decisions I've made in my life. The show has helped me think outside of the box and believe me...this was/is no small feat :)

I've been lurking here since the beginning of season 3, just recently registered, and have been lurking some more :whistle: The one thing I've consistently noticed is there really are many wise, funny, and caring ladies here. I honestly have to say that while I've learned a lot about myself through the show, I've also learned a lot through some of the posters here. Just goes to show you don't always know who might be "listening"....so thank you ;).

Hello Everyone-

I guess I should really be ashamed at this point. I have watched SO since the beginning and have read the posts online since last year. However, this is my first year actually participating in the chats. ( This is cool!!!)
I work as a cargo sales agent for a major airline in Atlanta, Ga.

My favorite movies are Imitation of Life, Deliver Us from Eva, Finding Nemo, Muppets Wizard of Oz (yeah I know .. I have a 5yr old) and my newest favorite Memoirs of a Geisha.

Do I have a favorite housemate? That is hard since I have loved and them all, but I guess the one that sticks out to me is Rain. She was down to earth and truly strived to make a difference in her and her daughters lives. Despite the choices she had made in the past. She definitely had the heart to Start Over.

Hi Everyone,

1. I babysit.
2. My favorite movie is "gone with the wind", with a touch of "the grinch that stole christmas".
3. I don't have favorites-- except Ben and Jerry's"chunky monkey."

Hello Everyone! I'm a huge Starting Over fan and have been watching the show from Day One! This is my first time joining a message board regarding the show. Am a bit behind, I guess.

First off, I'll start with a bit about myself. I am a 41 year old mother of 4 boys and a grandmother of one precious 9 month old little girl. I have been married to my second husband for 15 years and enjoy each day with him as if it were my first.

Currently I am a stay at home mom/grandmother and babysit my granddaughter so my son and daughter in law can continue their education. Prior to this, I worked at a mom/pop establishment doing Accounts Payable/Receivable.

I have too many movies to list, but I am a faithful John Travolta fan. So I'll say anything with him in it.

My favorite houseguests were Andy and Lori. So far I think season one was the best. It stayed with the true aspect of the show. Seems now it's all about ratings.

But that's my opinion.

A big warm welcome to all of you! I hope you enjoy the boards and chats as much as I do. I have met some of my best friends on this board. I think when you talk with your fingers and not with your mouth, you tend to open up your heart a little more.

I agree with you throughly DesertDiamond!! The show does seem more about ratings now than it did in the beginning. I guess in order to keep the show on the air, ratings are very important. I would like to see Rana come back as a coach though. I thought she was awesome in Chicago. It seemed more real there. (Chicago), not as much so in a mansion in southern California.

1. What do you do for a living?

I took early retirement. I did Social Work after retiring from Sears.

2. favorite Movie and it is ok you can have several

Too many to list.

3. favorite housemate.

Karen I am thinking she is from the third season. Megg from the third season was a favorite. Jill maybe be my all time favorite I'm new to this site and am really enjoying it! I'm in the Louisville, Kentucky, area and have been a fan of SO since the very first time I saw an episode. I remember the episode, in fact: the one where P.J. went through the labyrinth. I was home recuperating from back surgery and caught it without having any idea what it was about. I have been hooked since! I also was able to see much of season one through reruns that other channels here play.

To answer the questions:

My job: I am the IT director for a large religious non-profit. I LOVE my job!

Favorite movie: Oh, wow ... I usually have a movie I'm currently obsessed with, but I have a stash of movies I have loved forever and will watch every year for the rest of my life. Some of those are: Hannah & Her Sisters, When Harry Met Sally, An Affair to Remember (with Deborah Kerr). I'm currently having a phase of wanting to watch Hallmark movies. I have one paused right now, in fact, while I finish eating supper!

My favorite SOG: This is hard to do, but I guess it would be Lori from Season One. I liked her incredible integrity, and I could relate to her on a number of issues. Plus I thought she was just a blast and VERY brave. Remember when she cut her hair off?? :(

Again, I'm thoroughly enjoying this site. Thanks to whoever is responsible for it (and forgive me for not knowing this yet -- I'll spend time reading and figuring this out soon!).

Lori

Hi everyone. I LOVE SO so much I tape it everyday when I am at work. I would love to go and work on the process with Rhonda, but I am too chicken to do it on t.v.; so... I am a middle school teacher. I have 2 purebred dachshunds and one dorkie which is half yorkie and half dachshund. My favorite present day character is Jodi, but I love Jill. I wish they would show Jodi more at Curves. I go to Curves and love it. Well, hope you all have a great day. Don't tell me what happened today because I have not watched it yet. tchr706

I have been on here for a month or so now and I still have not introduced myself yet so I will do it now.

1. What do you do for a living?

I run the family business that my mom and grandmother started. I have been doing this for two years now. I also go to school. I am getting a degree in psychology and I hope to head to grad. school in a couple of years.

2. Favorite Movie and it is ok you can have several

Lets see... I love Harry Potter... also I love Adam Sandler movies I can quote Billy Madison line for line ( i annoy myself) :cheer:

3. Favorite housemate.
I would have to say it's TJ... also Jill is great

I am really glad that I found this site. :woohoo: everyone in here is great

I am home recovering from back surgery. I am married and was a totally independent 42 year old woman until I hurt my back almost 4 years ago, had surgery Jan 9. I suck, I hate my family to see me this way. They stay away from me because it hurts them to see me this way. I am new to this site. Hate to bring people down but I have to learn how to start all over.

Hi, I'm 39, I'm a mom of a 6 & 8 year old and I work as a secretary and choir director at my church. I love watching Starting Over.

My favorite movies are:

Sound of Music, Fiddler on the Roof, Gandhi, Groundhog Day, Brokeback Mountain... I really want to see Davinci Code...
Oh I just love going to movies.

I like all the house guests. Each has her strengths and weaknesses. I tend to avoid confrontations in my life so I really enjoy watching how each one handles the disagreements and various issues in the house.

Are they really canceling the show? Can't we make them change their minds???

Hello Everyone!!

It's great to see how much everyone loves and appreciates Starting Over.

I was on a producing team on the show and am now on a new producing team for another Starting Over type talk show!!

I need your help...

We are in the process of casting guests for specific topics and I'd love it if you could let your friends and families know.

At the moment, I am working on Ultimatum's:

DO YOU NEED TO DELIVER AN ULTIMATUM TO SOMEONE YOU KNOW??

Do you need help delivering an ultimatum to a co-worker, family member, friend or spouse?

Is your relationship on the brink of destruction because of words left unsaid?

Are you afraid to present an alternate option to this person based on fear of their immediate reaction?

Do these examples apply to your life or anyone you know?

- Are you ready to ask your boss for that well deserved promotion or raise or leave your job?
- Are you allergic to your partner's pet yet they continue to choose the pet over you?
- Does someone in your life need help giving up on their collections and/or pack rat tendencies?
- Is your spouse still unsure or afraid to take the next step in your relationship?
- Is your partner unwilling to have children?
- Does your significant other spend too much time with their ex and it kills you inside?
- Do you want to present a tough issue to a friend but have been unsure how to go about presenting the problem?
- Does your spouse refuse to find a job and you're ready for a change?

***Also Looking For***

- Have you ever presented an ultimatum to someone, which in turn went horribly wrong?

Greg Behrendt, Acclaimed New York Times Best Selling Author of "He's just not that into you" can help!!

The Greg Behrendt Show is a new, compassionate and life motivating daytime series looking for extraordinary people with exceptional stories!

If you are interested please email the following:

Be sure to make the your objective clear in the subject line

Your Name

Age

Phone Number

Snapshot Photo (no headshots please)

And a Brief Synopsis about Your Situation to:

gbtshow@hotmail.com

Thank You and Hope to See You on the Show!!

This guy supposedly authored the book

This guy sounds more like a comedienne than a serious talk show host trying to help women.

I hope he isn't out to exploit women for laughs..

That would be my first impression based on his 'career'...

Doesn't seem to be a lot of requirement to be a talk show host...

They started out as journalist or doctors but seems everyone is now into the act... including models and comedians.

I don't have anything against Tyra. I think she's good. I don't get into those talk shows anymore. Some seem to start out great and end up showing that old fall back "I cheated on you"... "I know you cheated on me"... and "Which of the 2, 4, 8, 12 men is my baby's Daddy?"

Greetings, all! Is it silly to join a chat site after the show's been cancelled? I only found out about this site when I went looking for info about what had happened to my favourite show!

I live in Toronto, Canada, and I have been watching Starting Over since season 2. The show, along with Rhonda's books, has helped me a lot! I have been suffering from depression for many years now and my life was pretty much in the dumper. Thanks to SO & Rhonda's book Fearless Living, I am now in art school training to be a graphic designer! Given that I'm nearly 50, this is a bold move indeed!

This is the last week of first term, so it's crunch time for me. Hope to read and chat more in the future!

Welcome Artschoolkid! I have a feeling based on some recent posts that many people were surprised that the show wasn't on as they might have expected and stumbled on SOT as a result of trying to find out.

Look forward to chatting on one topic or another.. Who knows maybe come winter we'll here of a decent replacement for SO..

Thus far all the new morning programming stinks!
