Hey Hugster! Sorry we missed you in chat last night :P

First,the pictures you asked me about were the ones Momof2 downloaded for Avatars :) but I don't see any new ones.

Secondly...if you are getting no access you are probably seen as a guest and need to log in on the left.Sometimes when I first come to the site I am automatically logged in...it says "hi,2cents"

and other times I have to log in before I have access to all the sites...including the chat room!

Next time it says no access,look to the left and see if yourname is listed...if not log in.

It could also be the soft ware!! :blink: Finicky!!

How's that hair working for ya?! :P

I know you are an early riser ....I'll check chat later!
