:) :) :) :) Boy mydogkat

I sure hope that rumor is sooooooooo true :laugh:

Chloe deserves so much better for her life then the jerk who used and abused her mom :mad: :mad: I am sure if it is true Josie would have being heartbroken

She really need to believe it was Jerkathons child. :unsure: :unsure: I really did not understand why she was so attracted to this looser but when all you know is hardship and parents who did not want you around even when you had no where to go and 8 months with child, I guess she thought he was better then nothing :x

I do pray though that she will meet someone who will love her and her daughter as she so deserves a chance at :)

Thanks for the scoop mydogkat

Hugs

Well,if he is not the father than who? She needs to know who the baby father is, but I must said that I'm glad that he is not maybe he will hit the road. I have a feeling that the other 2 men are not any better.

If you pull up the site.....click on about the cast....click on each name and a picture and information comes up.

lets see if I can paste them in here

http://www.bunim-murray.com/shows/so2_show.htm

Josie
21, Chicago, IL

Fans of STARTING OVER will remember Josie as the woman who arrived late in season one, due to give birth in a matter of weeks. With no resources and grim prospects, Josie struggled with the decision to keep her baby or give it up for adoption. As season one came to a close, Josie had given birth to Chloe, a beautiful and healthy baby girl. Early in the new season, viewers will see the resolution of this dramatic storyline.

30, Atlanta, GA

Towanda struggles under the expectations of her prominent show business family.
(Braxton)

Sinae, blind girl
18, Los Angeles, CA

At age 17, Sinae was stricken by a blow that would have crushed most adults. Now she needs to create a life for herself in the face of such personal adversity.

Jennifer, next to Rhonda
21, Denver, CO

Jennifer has been grappling with adult problems since childhood and is desperate to be rid of the feelings she has kept locked up since her youth.

Deborah, Lady in green and blue dress
46, Los Angeles, CA

Deborah says she has tried everything to meet the right man, and nothing and no one, not even the women in the house, will stand in her way.

Kim, pink shirt black pants
46, Denver, CO

If money buys happiness, Kim should be on top of the world, but despite her many privileges, she carries a heavy burden.

I am glad,I think, that Josie deecided to keep her baby. :unsure: :)

She was given time to bond and love that child.

Now ,hopefully, she will not just think about herself when she thinks about her relationship with Jonathon.She was ready to give that child up,just for a little attention and "affection" from Jonathon :ohmy: :(:blink: Did he ever really care?Is it all about him?I know Josie had a rough start...and all any of us really wants is to be loved. But what is love ,Josie? Be real. Ask the tough questions. What good things does he do for you?How does he make you feel?Is it healthy.Don't we inherently know? I don't mean to be so hard on Josie...but it is so hard to see people do these things to themselves.I guess it is always easier on the outside looking in.

Another thing I find puzzling :blink:

The 2 were "split".... Josie had relationships with 2 other guys.

Would Jonathon wanted to work things out after that if their was not a baby involved?

What about unconditional love? Guess that is too mature for this duo :blink:

Is it his pride?

Did he love Josie to begin with?

Did he come forward just because she was on National TV? :unsure: :blink:

I don't know what it is between them....If you play you pay !

I don't even know if what I am trying to convey is being conveyed!!! :blink:

Yes 2CENTS you did convey your thoughts :)

Now who is going to call the ambulance to take this girl away

:P :P :P :P ;) :) :) :laugh: :blink: :blink:

To put the words" unconditional love" in a sentence about jerko and Josie :x

Those are grouds for committall around these parts :ohmy: :P :P :P :P :P :P :P

I would love to be able to tape it for anyone. But I have not yet figured out how to set a VCR. I have been trying for days now. It is not working. Does anyone know how to set the timer on a VCR.

The show comes on a 4 am and sometimes I don't wake up in time.

news spoiler, some of this is new some is old. New release for Sept, 3.

Audience to get first look at new house and cast on September 10th

BURBANK, Calif. -- September 3, 2004 -- NBC Universal Domestic Television Distribution's STARTING OVER will kick off its second season with a special preview episode available to local stations starting Friday, Sept. 10.

The real-life daytime drama, which is produced by Bunim-Murray Productions ("The Real World," "The Simple Life"), will make its official second season premiere on Monday, September 13, 2004 (Syndicated, check local listings for time and station).

"STARTING OVER is such a roller coaster ride that we wanted to provide the audience with the chance to get fully up to speed on the characters and the drama that will unfold daily starting September 13th," said Jon Murray, Chairman, Bunim-Murray Productions.

The dramatic highlights of the first season lead up to the cliffhanger episode featuring Josie, the young pregnant woman who entered the house at the end of the season, due to give birth in a number of weeks. While Josie gave birth at the end of the first season, a number of questions remain unanswered, including who is the father of her newborn.

In the special preview episode, viewers will be introduced to the second season cast, which includes Josie (22) from Chicago, who returns to the STARTING OVER house from season one.

New cast members include:

TOWANDA (30) Atlanta, GA: Towanda struggles to develop her own identity separate from her show biz family.

SINAE (18) Los Angeles, CA: At age 17, Sinae was stricken by a blow that would have crushed most adults. Now she needs to create a life for herself in the face of such personal adversity.

JENNIFER (21) Denver, CO: Jennifer has been grappling with adult problems since childhood and is desperate to be rid of the feelings she has kept locked up since her youth.

DEBORAH (46) Los Angeles, CA: Deborah says she has tried everything to meet the right man, and nothing and no one, not even the women in the house, will stand in her way.

KIM (46) Denver, CO: If money buys happiness, Kim should be on top of the world, but despite her many privileges, she carries a heavy burden.

Viewers will also have the opportunity to meet life coach Iyanla Vanzant, and Consulting Psychologist Dr. Stan J. Katz, who join life coach Rhonda Britten, returning for her second season on STARTING OVER.

Additionally, the audience will see the new STARTING OVER house, now established in Los Angeles, in a beautiful, Spanish style, hilltop house with expansive views, lush gardens and a pool.

STARTING OVER is the first ever real-life daytime drama. STARTING OVER features six women living under the same roof, each striving to meet challenging goals and improve their lives while living together. They are supported by "life coaches" who offer guidance and direction. Each woman is expected to reside in the STARTING OVER house for six to twelve weeks, depending on the scope of her "project" and her rate of progress toward her goal.

STARTING OVER is produced by Bunim-Murray Productions, the creators of the hit series "The Simple Life," "The Real World" and "Road Rules." It is distributed by NBC Universal Domestic Television Distribution. Jonathan Murray and Millee Taggart-Ratcliffe are Executive Producers. STARTING OVER is currently sold in more than 90% of the U.S. for its second season in national syndication.

NBC Universal Domestic Television Distribution's current syndicated programming includes the first run series "Access Hollywood," "Blind Date," "The Chris Matthews Show," "Fifth Wheel," "The Jane Pauley Show," "Jerry Springer Show," "The George Michael Sports Machine," "Home Delivery," "Maury," "Rebecca's Garden," "Starting Over," "The Wall Street Journal Report," "Wild Moments," "Your Total Health," and the off-network syndication sales of the series "Boomtown," "Crossing Jordan," "Ed," "Fear Factor," "Law & Order," "Law & Order: SVU," "Law & Order: Criminal Intent," "Providence," and many more. NBC Universal Domestic Television Distribution also distributes the first-run specials "The Remarkable Journey" and "Good Housekeeping Reports" inserts.

Hi

On the show on Monday, you will get a glimpse of the ladies of the new house. At the end of Monday's show with Amie and Josie as guest hosts, they show a bit of what is to come. You see the new girl Deb. and a few others. Not a lot but it is neat to see them live instead of just in a picture.
