Yippeeeeeee, I am so happy to see Rachel again and allison, but there is no spot for allison on the board. They sure jumped ahead from last week. they have vanessa, bethany, rachel, allison kim, cassie.

these were my favorites in the house. I missed rachel.

They skipped right over Renee. That was not good, no entering and at the beginning they said she just graduated.. they should of showed her some, that was not right

I know, I was kind of blown away because they skipped the part with sommer too with her dad and I wanted to see that again even though I have it taped.

I wish they would bring her back for a day like they did with Josie. I loved Rachel and her story and she was one strong minded gal and she had spunk. I hope she is at peace now and happy whatever she is doing in life.
PeaceB) & golden huggs
