Josie is not very photogenic. There have been several horrid pictures of her. Today on the show was the first time I saw that God awful lip growth. It really looks horrible. Her hair looked pretty. Amy has been wearing the blue shirt for three days.

Of course they filmed all the host shots together, many in one day, because they were only there together for a short time, right? That would be a lot of clothes to have a new outfit for everytime they hosted a show, all summer long.

Hi, it was not while she was hosting that I was talking about. It was the picture that they freeze on the Original Site. She was crying...actually it is what Oprah calls the "Ugly Cry"!!!!

any one else hear her say that!!??

I think Josie is a pretty girl (lady) but that ring in her lip look bad just like Amy's hair. That is not my style. :laugh:

PAIN JUST READING THE WORDS

PULL IT OUT

I can only hope it is a pull-away ring :blink: the ones that open the slightest pull so they do not rip her lip in half :(:x :x :x
