Has anybody heard anything about Lori lately? She is one I would like to see return to the show.

From the looks of todays show she is going great! She looked so pretty and happy!

I Love Lori she was one of my favorites.

Watching the reruns has been fun, especially seeing how far Andy has come!

We are all very blessed to have this show. I have learned so much.

I now try to never judge. You never really know where someone is coming from that made them the person they are today. You also never know why they do the things they do. I learned that years ago studying Psychology in college. I was having a hard enough time trying to understand myself and why I did certain things much less anyone else! I am much more patient and understanding now. Thank You SO for all the lessons you have taught us thus far! Can't wait for season 2.

She did look great and happy, but she was sort of funny too. I don't want to sound mean but she seemed like she was trying to hard to be a host of the show and she looked weird to me. Christine looked calm and very relaxed. I think she did a better job, even though she talked less.

I haven't seen anything on her but on todays show... 6-15-04 she looked more relaxed and calm and very at ease with everything going on. I couldn't believe how far she had come. She looked so good and happy. She above all deseuvres to be happy.
