Hello Everyone!

Im new to this forum but I've been watching Starting Over sense Season 2. The 1st episode I saw was the one when Josie wanted to leave the house and everyone tried to get her to stay. That episode was moving to me and it actually bought me to tears when I saw how truly hurt and torn she was. I loved how all the house mates intervened and I really admired Rain for her tough love. Needless to say I've been hooked ever sense.....

So to my point I was just curious of what ever happened to Rana. I felt like she did a great job but when the show/house moved to California she didnt. Does anyone have the scoop on Rana? :)
