
Vanessa update!

It seems that Vanessa updated her website today! Can't believe she did it the day I happened to check. Sounds like she is doing much better due to alternative therapies, and starting to dance a bit.

Hi Mandy...Thanks for the link to Vanessa's site...I am really happy to hear she went with the unconventional holistic treatment and found relief... Really cool to hear that!...and good of her to pass it on to others...:)

wow.. This is the first time I have visited Vanessa's site and it is awesome. I was not aware of her condition when I read this post and was a bit perplexed and had to do some searching on her website to find out her issues since appearing on SO Season 2. What an ordeal she experienced.. I am also glad now to hear she is finding some relief from her chronic pain.... my heart goes out to her.
