I was just wondering has anyone heard any updates on Cassie? I want soo bad for her to earn her GED. I wanted her to meet her son too. But I really was rooting for the GED, because it (I feel) was a more positive accomplishment.

She seemed to really want to benefit from the SOH, but had the most obstacles.

If you look under links (along the left side of your page)...you can get to weblinks of former cast members. I believe she has a website. It may have updated info. I know she has been shown in some pictures on Lynell and Hailey's Lchain site..

You may be able to get a more current update from Cassies site.

No clue how that double posted. I was checking out the link myself. The link provided at this site is for Cassie from season 1. I know I've seen a site for Cassie 2 from SO2. Bethany had it on her website but it doesn't seem to work now.
