Josie\'s hair

I like Josie's new hair, with the split ends cut off and shaped. Can anyone tell me why guys are so crazy about long hair? I know many who get upset if a girl doesn't let it grow long. Why does it matter? Does it go beyond personal preference, into some deeper meaning?

Have a thought on that question :laugh:
Maybe it goes back as far as the cave men when they would grab thier mate by the hair and drag her around :laugh:
:laugh:
Must be a resessive gene?
Boy have we ladies come a long way!!!
Now you see the girl dragging their men around with their long hair !
:laugh:
Oh sorry thats what the nose rings are for

JUST HAVING FUN EVERYONE

This is just my opinion. I think that women look older when they cut there hair. Maybe guys don't like that. Maybe women with short hair remind the guys of their mother so they prefer their girlfriends to have long hair. I always liked to keep my hair long, and previous boyfriends told me that I looked sexier wiith my it long. I guess we just need a guys opinion. any guys out there that can help? ;)

Thanks for the opinions. Nose ring---funny. What about the eyebrow and belly rings?
OUCH!
