
Friday, December 9, 2005 HELP!

Posted by netty - 2005/12/10 00:41

It's 2:45 am here and I was just finally getting to playing the tape and doin' the recap...no Friday show on the tape. I think someone messed with my VCR. Or...someone bigger than me decided that I've pushed myself too much this week and wanted to spare me a couple wee morning hours. Can anybody else do this recap...even a slight synopsis???

Bummer....I already deleted it from my tivo. I'll try to keep them around longer in case they're ever needed. And although I definitely have my opinions on the show.....;)I don't remember enough to really post much. I hope someone else still has it recorded!!!!

I think this link might be helpful... It is usually a shorter version than what is provided here... but I have found it helpful.

Netty, You do too much! It's a busy time of year...and don't feel guilty if something doesn't pan out. If someone volunteers, great! If not, don't sweat it... In the big scheme of things... providing us with recaps is merely a courtesy and luxury for us! Maybe this will suffice for today!
