
Holiday ABC'S

Posted by BellaRosa - 2005/12/15 14:44

Here's a twist on an old favorite. In this game we are not only putting in any word that fits, but we are learning about each others holiday traditions as we play along. This being that, many of us on this site come from diferent ethnical and religous backgrounds, as a result we celebrate different holidays. So as we go through each letter, please put in your item aswell as the holiday you celebrate.

Some Examples...

A is for Angel on top of my Christmas Tree

B is for Bhai Dooj Gifts to give out on Diwali

C is for candles in the Menorah we light each Hanakkuh Night

D is for Decorations in Black, Red and Green -the traditional colors of Kwanzaa
