
I think I saw Andy

I was watching the "Today" show this morning and I coul've swore I saw Andy in the audience. Did anyone see her? The "Today" show has there concert series on the square, and that's where I spotted someone that looks just like Andy. She was almost on the front row looking toward the stage. The camera guy moved to fast and I couldn't really tell. Oh well, I just wanted to share that. ;)
