I was wondering what happened to Cassey? Met her a year ago in person and found her very "REAL". Would love to contact her again. The website from this site link didn't give me much to go on. No way to contact her. Could anyone help me?

I would assume it would be season 1. The Cassey that had found her son after giving him up for adoption.

The Cassie who gave her son up for adoption was from season 2. Take a look in the spoilers section of the forum. There is some info on her there.

Cassie used to have a section on someone else's website. I think, after a falling out, the website owner removed Cassie's section.

Any more detail on this?

Cassie's back for a visit and wanted to see her site - wondering what happened.

If it's the same site I used to check in on Cassie at, there was no falling out, but rather, the site owner felt that the thoughts and messages being sent to Cassie were not nice and Cassie didn't need that. So that was when she was removed.
