Maureen's graduation

My guess is Maureen will graduate next Friday, July 23. Most people on this board think Kimberlyn won't even be on the reruns. How can they show Maureen's graduation without Kimberlyn moving in? I guess clever editing can be done!

I read somewhere that the hosts in August will be Susan, Josie, Lynell, and Hailey. They will show the shows that will lead up to the fall series. Let's see if that is right!:)

That is very interesting. How is it that people get this info? Well I don't mind that they won't show Kimberlyn. She didn't really do much in the show so there is no point in putting her on it. I'm pretty sure the editing people will do a good job. :P

Just guessing, but I think that they will skip from the first six, to right before Leah and Josie come back to the house in LA. That's when I really watched the show, with PJ and Brenda, and Teresa. And Audrey-----
