Sommer's Weight Loss

It hasn't happened yet so I posted this here!

Sommer told Marcus the other day that she hadn't seen her parents in approx. 2 months. So he says then they ahven't seen you since your weight loss? She said NO!

How could that be?

Anyway on Friday's show the parents will see and talk to her. Are they going to be shocked with her weight loss or did she lie to Marcus???

If they are not shocked and/or elated when they see her then something isn't right....JMO!

Do you think he meant the weight loss since she had been in the house?? :huh:

Sommer looks fantastic !! Much more toned and much smaller since she has been working out.It helps having a crush on you trainer !! :rolleyes:

Wemust remember Sommer has lost a lot of weight since entering the SO house in addition to the wieght she lost before entering. She also is much more toned and Sommer still hasn't owned the 100 pounds she has lost . She still feels like a fat person but is starting to realize she is not.
