
juggling kids & Husband

Posted by LauraS - 2006/03/22 11:00

Life is a struggle everyday. The topic from 7am - 9pm " what are they doing now?" Mother of three 7, 5, 1. all boys may I add. Husband who is wonderful. Tries to be very supportive. Has no idea what my day consists of.

May I add. I also babysit three boys during the week. $$$ problems. 5 year old has ADHD. Doctors appt. left right and center. Being a Mom is hard. I never thought that having kids would be such a challenge. But it all pays off when out of the blue they approach mom with an I love you.

There is never enough time in a day to fit everything in. I feel like I need a date book to fit in ME time. I feel alone sometimes. I know I am not. There are plenty of Mom's just like I. If you need to chat I am here.

You certainly aren't alone!!! Motherhood is the toughest job you'll ever love, after all!!! But at times, a thankless and never-ending one!! Hang in there.....you've got lots of support here!! And getting those I Love You's makes everything worthwhile!!!

You are lucky, LauraS, because it sounds like your husband is at least somewhat supportive. I have three boys, ages 11, 8 and 7. Middle one has a disability that isn't obvious but affects his everyday life. Husband is getting more and more like a jerk and I'm so wanting to leave but I don't know if I will ever be able to do it. I work full time, I'm involved in PTA and try to take care of the house and the kids and the husband but I've about had it. I'm not happy. My husband is trying to tell me what I can and can't do. Our 13 1/2 year old dog is starting to not do very well. When does it all get better?

I'm sorry to dump. I'm just having an awful day.

I'm sorry you're having a rough time. I won't say I can understand, but I will say I care and you'll be in my thoughts and prayers!!!
