Jodi - chat (Thursday 9 EST.)

For those who belong to more than 1 site or might be interested in this. I happened to find this info at the reality tv site..

It was stated that she will be involved in an online chat at the WCW site. (womencomfortwomen)... I hate to think that this site and that are rivals or anything.. I haven't joined there...but since they made their boards members only I had thought about it.

I'd like to think that since Jill complimented many members on this board that we are a great community too.

Anyway, I know that I recognized some names from this site on theirs when I had been able to lurk (when the site was more open). Hopefully someone will come back and give the scoop!

I am a member there (different username) and love it. Where did you get the idea that both websites were rivals? Personally, I love both site. :)

Just assumed.... Hate to plug another very similar site.. Both sites seem great.. Although I only lurked on the other and I do as well on the blog site. But the blog site is considerably different.

I hope they aren't really rivals... since we all presumably want the same systems of support and opportunities to discuss the issues.

You can read the whole transcript at wcw site.

Kim and Kelly were also on.

Kelly closed down her Myspace because of negative feedback, and it also included mean stuff about her sons.

Jody wants to open up a consulting business. I think she said she used to work in publishing (I could be wrong, u will have to go and check) they all seem happy and they all keep in touch with Kim.

The rules over their is that u can't copy and paste to another site.
