Bethanys Graduation

I've been watching the older seasons of SO on my TVONE channel. Yesterday they showed Bethanys graduation. I found it to be one of my favorite graduations yet. I couldn't stop crying.

Then you must have watched SO2's Bethany... She was great!

But I think this section shouldn't be confused with the Bethany it's geared for. There is a new Bethany in the SO3 house...

Some members may not be familiar with SO2 and it's hg's.

Where or what channel is SO2 playing? Did someone mention TVone? I don't have that .... but could put the bug in the ear of our provider.

Don't you live in the Washington DC metropolitan area? I live in Potomac (MD) and if you have Comcast cable TV, TV1 is channel 37. SO2 is aired twice a day. 2:00 am and 8:00 am.

We have Adelphia... in Loudoun County.

But thanks for the heads up...

They have a digital lineup and an analog lineup. We still have the old analog lineup.

I'll keep a lookout for tv1... Maybe it's on their digital lineup and we can upgrade sometime soon.

I think my parents in Fairfax county have Comcast..

OK, so do I have it right, it's the "old" Bethany that graduated, not the current housemate whose little girl died? I have a hard time envisioning the current Bethany even staying in the House for very long, much less graduating so soon with all of the grief and pain she has yet to work through.
