A rumor that I hope is not true is that a future houseguest is a man, going through the process of becoming a woman. Yikes!

I wouldn't want to be living in a house with a Man trying to become a woman and I'm sure there are a ton of people out there that would agree with me. and who would want to room with him??

The other Rumors are very interesting. Thanks so much, HD. You Rock when it comes to getting us the dirt, girl!
