I have been posting comments on this site for a while and I have never had a reply or anything. Am I doing something wrong?

It is like talking to myself.

It's not like we can each reply to every post. Have you asked a question? Or posted a fairly new observation?

Sometimes alot of ideas are posted in several different threads that go hand in hand...and observations aplenty.

Don't know you from Adam... but if you have something interesting to discuss... I'm game.

Try not to take it personally and just get involved in current discussions... or state any neat observations you have in an appropriate forum.

Before you know it, you will feel like part of the crowd. No one is trying to exclude you on purpose.

I know how you feel. That sometimes happens, but I don't think it is intentional against you. Sometimes there are so many posts that I try to get through in the limited time I have. I only have so much time.

I am a fairly new member ,but I try to comment on the issues I feel strongly about. Sometimes I do that in one thread only to discover a similar thread exist under another forum. I feel funny repeating myself too much. Sometimes I will double post, but usually not. I just hope someone will find it.

Also there are some things I inquire about that maybe nobody knows the anwer. At least that's what I figure if nobody responds.

It looks like you are on your way to getting responses.

Well don't worry too much about that double post thing.... It's happened to all of us!

I think if when you log in and you click on the remember me box....it might help.

Just a quirk in the system.

PJ, Keep trying... Find an interesting thread and don't feel like you have to wait for people to reply. Just jump in! Debby gave you some great advice too!

It's when you start answering yourself that may become a problem ;) jus kiddin hehe :silly:

Debby: try this tip re: double posting

When opening a thread to read it.. if you right click and open it in a new window.. when you submit if you error don't refresh! that's an automatic double post.. just X it out, close it and you will see that it posted. Best bet is to never refresh.. you won't get near as many doubles.

"pjdonnellan,

Do you think Kelly has shown any progress? Do you feel she is not ready to graduate and if so what would you like to see from her?

(I read your post that nobody responds to you...lol, I've felt like that before.)"

Someone reponded to you on another thread. Maybe you haven't rechecked all of your posts.

Holee schmokes, girl! Half the time, I really am talking to myself. I hardly ever know what I'm gonna say until I try to put it into writing.

I thought the advice good to pose questions or (dare I?) wage debate. Ooooh, lawd. You can almost hear all of us "Kim Supporters" goose-stepping around the room in rabid anticipation, can't you? :evil: :whistle: :lol: (Relax. Just kidding.) Heck - some days, I thought Kim would have gotten better support if she'd just logged in here.

I do like it that you come right out and say what you mean and ask for what you want. If only the hg's would do that! But then there'd be no conflama, nothing to talk about, and none of us would be here. The good news is, you only got ignored temporarily - not rejected. Sorry 'bout that. Willkommen!

I'm sorry you feel that way.....I replied to at least one of your posts.....but then, I've replied to so many and started many and rambled and questioned and ranted and praised.....lol.....I know, I know.....I should be sleeping, eh????!!!!

At this site it's just like there's 100 of us all at Starbucks drinking our lattes (or frapaccinos!!!) and chattering away.....sometimes it's deafening and there's just so much to keep up with!!!

But hang in there.....everyone's welcome and just keep jumping in and be a part of it all!!!

You could try posting in the correct forum. For example this post you just made has nothing to do with spoilers.
