Hi MEW,

Just wanted to let you know that you're not the only one here from Georgia. I have lived in Georgia for 23 years now. I'm was born and raised in Michigan. I spent 6 years in Kansas after I graduated from high school. Then in 1982, I finally moved to Georgia. I love it here. I told my mom when I was 12 years old that I was going to live in Georgia some day, but she laughed at me. I work in Savannah, but live about 43 miles from there. I have a nice commute to and from work, but I've been doing it for 9 years and it doesn't bother me.

I'd love to hear from you and any other Georgians who may be lurking out there. Take care and have a great weekend.

Elaine

I am in Georgia as well. I am in northeast:) Near gainesville. That would be awesome if somehow we could all meet up and meet each other in person. I just graduated from RWSIR today that's in Warm Springs.

I'm 22. :)

Write back:)
Sarah

I lived in Georgia for a while. My aunt & two cousins live there, they live near Atlanta. That is a really Big city. The Biggest I have been to yet. I just visited down there around the 4th of July it was so hot & humid. I forgot how humid the south can be :(:laugh: ! But, I still love it down there! Southern Gal @ Heart.

Hi all. I am in the Augusta Area (Martinez) I wish I could find some others around me that like the show. Maybe I wouldn't feel so dumb when I am screaming at the TV this year with some of the things that are going on. LOL:woohoo:

I'm from Texas... but now living in Georgia....been here almost 7 years now... it's still almost culture shock from Texas if that is understandable...lol.... from a big city like Houston, Atlanta seems small and laid out strange to me... all these hills.... :blink: ... I'm NE of Atlanta, Norcross/Lilburn area.... still small compared to Houston... I'm adjusting.... kinda....lol
