
Preview May 22

May 22

Christie gets her body painted; Antonia gets a makeover and eyebrow waxing for her graduation; Jill's father asks for her forgiveness.

Looks like they are only going to give us one day at a time. If Antonia is graduating this must be the last week.

Cool!

That must mean Jill came back into the house...and not just to visit!
I think the previous Friday's preview indicated Jill coming to the house.

I guess we see her dad too then!

Thanks for that great preview. I've been on the lookout, with no success... I think that probably will be the kick off for the last week... of the season.. and perhaps the show.
