Can you tell us more about the show? Who was there and their current activities? Would love to hear more.

I'm totally confused. Iyanla tells Niambi that she can return next season - which is the same thing that Rhonda told Bethany, if you recall - but the show is ending? I don't get that. Why would the producers include these quotes about returning next season if they knew they weren't going to?

Also, the episode clip says it's that season finale, but the announcer dude says it's the series finale.

What the...?

Hi, I must of missed something because I never heard the announcer dude say that I hope he just meant this season.

I want to know too! I can't believe I missed the stupid finale after committing 3 years to this show.
