I'm in South Surrey, B.C.

Canada is the most beautiful country.

SO is a lot of fun to watch...it would be something to film people watching the show...don't you find that you laugh, cry, cringe, gasp (in both shock and exasperation!)

Nice to be here!

Nope. Surrey is a burb of Vancouver, on the coast. Kelowna is in B.C.'s interior known as the Okanagan Valley.

Hi! I just joined the site. My name is Jackie. I am 25 years old. I am from Winnipeg, born and raised here. I am a huge hockey fan. I like the Maple Leafs. We don't have the NHL here anymore, but we have the AHL. Our team (Manitoba Moose) is the farm team for the Canucks. I am a huge Ed Belfour fan. I played hockey when I was 13. I was goalie and had my mask painted like his (an eagle).

I'm a Canadian (Kitchener, ON is my home town but I lived in T.O. for a while too) who recently relocated to the sunny South.
I'm a Leafs fan but they don't have hockey on tv down here and the local team is a joke. They can't control the puck and just like to fight.
There are so many little things I miss about home. Its good to see so many great Cdn girls on here :)
