
Say it isn't so...

Someone get me a cool cloth for my forehead...please say it isn't so....our beloved and cherished SO is cancelled?
I can't bear it!
What will I do without my "therapy" and Rhonda Britten?
Everyday this show helps me, everyday it inspires me...It has been the catalyst that has helped me to change my own life!
I can't bear seeing it go!
If anyone hears of anything we can solidly do other than calling...please let me know!
I'm ready to storm NBC!
The reruns are on now, so that's why there are ads for auditioning...don't forget the ads ran all season so they are in the re-runs!
I have to go lay down....with my cool cloth....
if anyone hears of a petition or other numbers to call, please post them!
Rally girls, we need to rally to save our SO!
Love Louie!

I must take a cool cloth too! Revamp if I must, but I am now enjoying the reruns as before. There must be more SO!
