Hi everyone! I just joined the site today! I have watched SO from Day one. I work during the day so tape it and can't wait to get home to watch it.

I am a 45 year old RN working in the recovery room. I was an RN in the Navy for 10 years before that.

I have alot of favorite movies, but I think I would definitely highlight, Fried Green Tomatoes, While You Were Sleeping and You've got mail"

My favorite houseguests are Lori (from season 1), Andy, Jessica and Jill. I think I have been able to relate in some way with most of the guests and have learned alot about myself from watching the show. I will be totally bummed if there isn't a season 4.

Looking forward to getting to know all of you.

Hi Jooles, Glad you found the site. I've been a SO fan since midway through the first season, but didn't find SOT until a few months ago.

I have really enjoyed it so much; the show and the board.

A Fourth Season is in doubt, but many are trying to keep the show afloat.

I'll look forward to seeing your posts.
