
Andy\'s blush

The color of her blush must have went out in the 80's. I think I seen it on the rock band Poison back then. She always tries to get people to step out of the box and cut their hair etc. Well her haircut is the style that Jennifer Aniston wore on Friends. Her lipstick looks like the lipstick itself was green but the actual color was a mystery color until you put it on.

Too Funny.

I can't believe anyone else remembers that lipstick! I used it when I was in college. It was green in the tube but turned dark pink or reddish on the lips, but, it stayed on for 12 hours, no kidding! I don't think they make it any more.

They are airing repeats of Season 2 in my area, so I can't see what you mean about Andy. I have commented several times that I do think she has a rather dated look. I think it looks 80's. I think she would look so great with a more subdued hair style and a softer more natural looking makeup.

I remember that green lipstick from the early 80's. It would turn the shade of pink supposedly most natural for your skintone.
