
Rana - SO1/WCW chat 7/17

Posted by KPW1956 - 2006/07/13 19:43

REc'd a message today that Rana will be visiting WCW on Monday th 17th for a moderated chat. (This I believe will be at the regular chatroom...and a transcript will likely follow a day or so later..)
(You still have to be a member to participate, I think!)... The moderator will go through alphabetically and let the participants ask Rana questions.

Maybe I should have put this in SO1 forum... but thought it might get lost there... If you were a fan of SO1 (I am a johnny come lately to the show!) this info might be interesting to you. I know many people really liked Rana. She does have a website..

This will be a more open chat... than Jill's. WCW does not provide transcripts to Jill's special Thursday night ones. Not that I've seen anyway! Hope that changes sometime in the near future!
