Phrase translation:

"I don't know how to {fill in the blank}" in Lisa language =
"I'm too lazy to {fill in the blank}" in regular English

so true.

lisa is a manipulator. for example at the horse farm, the entire time spent complaining, I cant do it, its too heavy, blah blah, all said in the hopes the guy would grab the shovel and do it for her. too bad it didnt work that time and she had to actually work.

and if i see her throw up one more time i might upchuck myself.
