John had two strokes, and before he had the second one he had signed a DNR. I think the show did not renew his contract he has been there for 20+ yrs. It will be different without him there. Who's next katherine?

Anyone keeping up with the show.

Any ideas who killed Carmen? from today show Lauren was kinda strange... I'm thinking she may have had something to do with Carmens death..not sure why but somthing seemed kinda strange about her today that's my guess for now.. could change.
