Christina's myspace (new picts)

2 things about her myspace that struck me.. (since it's been updated with new photos)...

<http://profile.myspace.com/70663534>

1) It looks like she is trying to focus on modeling.. Those sure look like modeling type shots.. She is a cute girl! The photog has some talent!

2) I sure hope that's a typo about her size.. :woohoo: (I'm sure she's taller than 3' 1"!)

I saw an older post about a Reality TV Convention in Nashville. I checked that site but didn't see any picts of her. Looks like a couple SO1 ladies made it too.

Didn't look like that great of a convention.. But it was the first one... so maybe they have room to grow!

It used to say she is 5'3". I think she changed it as a joke, like she did with her location.

One of the people in her friends list has a slide show of the Nashville convention about half way down the page and she is in alot of the pictures.

Well I think she had 17 pages of myfriends and I am not about to go through them!

Hope she had a good time. If she was in NC and the convention was in Nashville...than it was probably a nice excursion!

ha, ha...about the height.. Had to assume it was a typo... Didn't think of it being a joke.. I guess it's like people putting they are 99 years old. Like Lucious! (Niambi's flame)

Hey Donna, nice pics. Were they taken in NC or California? I'm from NC so I have always had a special spot in my heart for the Carolina gals: Allison, Bethany and Christina, of course.

Why, oh why don't the LCs give advice re dressing for interviews, etc? Remember the same thing with Christie. Or is it part of the learning curve? I thought it was probably a particularly sensitive topic for Christina. Thought she was given good advice at the job center...but she was also shamed, and that always makes me mad!!

I'm "of a certain age"...LOL!...but "appropriate dress" is a lot more hard to define these days, in any situation, especially for the young ones. Anyway, she seems a pretty intelligent girl to me, and think she will get her GED without too much trouble.

I think the issue on dressing was part of the learning experience.

She'll need to know to check before she goes on interviews in the "real world". As a former HR manager at a major corporation, I hope the exercise/lesson included tips on how to gather information about the places she is interviewing before she goes.
