
Thread on another forum (TJ and Kim)

Posted by KPW1956 - 2006/08/18 11:40

I know I mentioned a particular thread that TJ started at the Reality tv site.. but I just happened to go to that site again today and noticed she had a couple of additional replies. Also Kim apparently posted there as well.. (But who knows... it seemed it might have been..)

Check it out. Sometimes links have a way of boomeranging back to the page here... If it does, copy and paste it to your browser.

Enjoyed reading what TJ had to say! Not interested in fame...good for her!! Honest enough to say that the support is hard to give up though. Have to say that I was dismayed by some of the negative replies ...you can please some people some of the time...etc.

To each their own, but I much prefer this site!;!)

Great thread, thanks for sharing KPW.

It was nice of TJ to share her thoughts. The negative replies were just plain mean.
