Funny Story

About an hour ago I was at the Fearless Living site and clicked the link to listen to the 45 mp3 of Dr Stan and Rhonda. It was taking a while to download and I kind f forgot about and went out for a while. When I came back to my house about 45 minutes later I heard voices as I walked in the house. Nobody was home either but the voices sounded very familiar to me.

It took me a moment to realize it was coming from my computer and it was Dr Stan and Rhonda...lol

I probably would have freaked out... thinking someone was in the house... but would have also had a good laugh once I realized what it was.

Do let us know if whatever you downloaded, revealed anything about anything in the works..or collaboration on a project as had been rumored.
