Yes, I have noticed that too. Her voice is so deep now. I don't know if she is trying to sound sexy or what. But I have noticed it. Maybe that's how she talks when she is nervous. I really don't know but I am glad somebody else noticed.

Actually,I think I figured it out!!! :laugh: I think ,now that she is trying to be for ladylike and sophisticated she is trying to lose her 'tough' accent.I wonder if it was part of her coaching! B)
