I am planning on keeping that Chat Room open 24/7 but I would also like to schedule specific times. Please respond to this thread with suggestions for days and times to schedule chats.

Make sure you include your time zone too.

I'm in the Mountain Time Zone, but I'm usually (finally!!) able to come check everything out later at nite. I'm sometimes on in the later morning too. Thanks for all you do, Tara!!!

If you have a problem with another member in the chat room please try to handle it like an adult or contact a staff member PRIVATLEY. Public humiliation of SOT members will not be tolerated here.

Tara thanks ! I called NBC to voice my concern about Starting Over...because so many people have called in the system was overloaded. Although the problem is fixed I'm still going to call the 818 777-0244 number until something is done about the show.

My last post for this thread is gone.....I'm not sure if it vanished into the ether, so I thought I'd just give a heads-up. But I also wanted to say I was just being silly with Nadia about not being here very often (when I was sick) as opposed to being here a lot now and having fun!! I hope I didn't offend or enhance a misunderstanding. I'm truly sorry if I did. I have no problems with the posters here and truly enjoy the great conversations and the silly banter. I'm sorry if I came across wrong!
