Hello people. I just found out that my favorite show "starting Over" has been cancelled. I had no idea and expected it to start a new show any day now..... EEEEK!!!!!!!!!! --- When it didn't start I went looking and found you guys. I was looking for a place to Let the powers that be know about my unhappiness. I'll keep looking around this site, but if you guys know where I can email to complain about the canecellation, Please let me know. THANKS
