
I am new here tonight

Posted by gemini - 2006/09/21 00:06

Hello to all. I am new on here tonight. I am 47, a female, and live in New Mexico. I am a 7th grade middle school teacher. I teach language arts/literature/ESL. I have 3 dogs that are my children. One is Nick. He is about to turn 14 in people years and is a standard purebred dachshund. Then there is Gemini. He is 6 and acts like he is the man of the house. He is a mini purebred dachshund. Then, finally, the baby of them. She is 11 mos.; almost a year. Her name is Pepper. She is a dorkie (dachshund/yorkie). It was purely accidental and we rescued her from neglect and abuse. I hope to talk to others about SO. I thoroughly agreed with SO and I was going to try to go on it, but they left b4 I could. Well that's all for now.
