[/color hello to everyone from Cape Cod, Massachusetts. Is there anyone else from Mass on the SOT chat. I went to the chat room during a scheduled chat time but no one was there. Is there a scheduled time that more folks are on? Hope everyone is doing well. I have found that a lot of people who love Starting Over have some pretty tough things going on in their lives. If we all just stick together we can get through it all. Have a great day everyone:)

Welcome to SOT CHnajesa. I have never been to Cape Cod, but have always wanted to. One of my best friends went to Boston College. I hope to visit the entire eastern coast some day. I live in the eastern coast state of North Carolina.
