
Mike Tyson: the new American gigolo?

Posted by Nadia - 2006/11/20 17:45

OMG I can't believe what found. Mike Tyson becoming a male escort/Prostitute. ! This is absolutely ridiculous of him. Wasn't Mike Tyson convicted of being a rapist??They should rethink this I don't think any woman around him would be safe. I would not trust him to be around this man! (JMO).

Wasn't a piece of Hollyfield's ear bitten off?? OUCH.. Beware laddies!

Sheesh!

I hope Heidi has her liability insurance caught up! He seems like he'd be a risk!

I don't think he'd last...

He's used to beautiful women... being at his beck and call.. I don't think he'd like having to be at someone else's beck and call. Especially if they might not be his type... I'm just thinking as a male he might have the same problem females have prostituting themselves... Servicing guys (or women) who have problems being in relationships or who are addicted to sex..

What if a guy wanted to hire him as an escort?

I guess he could have an exclusive contract and not be obligated unless the 'clients' were personally screened first.

It doesn't say that he has agreed to it yet though...

IF he does it... he must really be broke!

No he hasn't agreed to it "YET" but the thought is there. I'm not so sure if he would last or not that wouldn't be my concern.. I think it's a dangerous situation he may loose his self control again on some other woman.

When you thought you heard it all:P and something like this comes along!!

Mr. Mike must be broke!! He can't fight anymore.....what else has he got.....oh thats right....."the other brain"!!

Please.....I'm sure whoever is hiring him is only doing it for the Name sake.....who in their right mind would go out with him? He's been in the headlines of being a rapist.....I really hope some lonely women don't fall into this.
