Hi I just got my computer up and running. I tried to get to the startingovertv site and could not. I was a big fan off the show and am shocked that they just ended it with no notice. Hope to maybe get some info about people that were on the show.

Welcome to the site flmom.

The site for SO has been gone for a while now.

Hope to see you around the boards! Take care, and have a nice weekend.

:)
