Hi, my name is Laura. I miss starting over a lot and thought it would be nice to meet other people who liked the show too.

Hi, Laura, I miss SO too. It's so nice to have this board so you can share with others when you see updates on former hg or coaches on the show. It's nice too just to share feelings you had when watching the show or lessons you might have learned.

Please join in and share. I'll look for you here.
