Introduction

I sure do miss Starting Over. I saw one episode and was hooked. Who knew you could learn so much about yourself from watching others?

Hi all. I live here in Las Vegas, Nevada. I will be 40 next month. I have a hard working, easy going husband that sometimes makes me crazy and a beautiful 14 year old daughter, who is turning into a young lady way before I was ready to give up the little girl! We have 4 cats, 2 dogs, and we are expecting the delivery of a 6 month old filly this month.

Welcome to the community Elnoma,

I saw one of the homepage ads for something that Iyanla will be connected with this spring out in Las Vegas.. Maybe you should check it out.

This wasn't the link that I originally saw..but the same event.

http://www.hayhouse.com/tour\_details.php?tour\_id=26

I think Iyanla may be one speaker of many there..

I think the majority of us miss SO.

Hi, Elnoma. Welcome to the board.

KPW, that seminar looks really good. I just couldn't find where the prices were for the cost of tickets.
