Hi,

My user name is ThetheredinNH. I have just joined because I need to find some sort of starting over fix. I have been grieving the loss of a truly inspirational show, how selfish of the network to cancel it- when it was successful. I am married with a 13 yr old son. Live in NH and have started my own business "Make a Face...Elaborate Face Painting" ALL thanks to Startingover and Iyanla's topic of doing what you believe in and feels right of "standing in your power" That is what inspired me to "step into MY power" I now have a very successful elaborate face painting business here in NH. You can take a peek if you'd like: www.MakeAFace4u.com

I don't think I would have followed my intuitions if not for the show...I had little confidence.
