Hello Nadia and Grizzlys4,

Thank You very much!:kiss: I hope all is well with the 2 of you? I have been pretty darn bored after the show ended, but I became too addicted to this site!:blush: I found myself on here at all different hours of the day and night..... My husband would pop in on me from time to time and ask who was I writing too.:lol: I am trying to get authorization from my insurance to get the gastric bypass done,so wish me luck!B) I will be talking with you again,so take care. I want to thank you once again for the welcome back!!!!;)
