I caught the show a few times, but got turned off... a bit too twisted for me.

I have seen just a few minutes here and there...never a full episode. With reruns beginning to start I might start checking out some shows I haven't seen before.

I actually watched what I think were the last 2 episodes for the season of this show. It was great! There was so much action packed into just 2 shows!

I can't wait until the new season starts.

Where do you think the family is headed for?
