
Online Questionnaire from the View

Did anyone else receive an online questionnaire from The View, asking specific questions about the panel and who you would like to be the replacements for Star and Rosie? It was very thorough and specific. I'm curious how they knew to panel me; I'm thinking I might have completed something in the past that put me on a list.

It was a good opportunity to share my "views"...

As of today, I have not received one. I have sent a couple of e-mails there before, but it's been awhile.

I think it's great they care about what their viewers think.

I thought I had mentioned seeing a questionnaire on their website.

For some reason the website isn't coming up. I tried to look there to see if it was still there.

Maybe those who've sent in responses, emails to the show or are active in any forums connected with their website or ABC.. were the ones who were specifically targeted with the email questionnaire.

I didn't get one either..
